

April 18, 2008

Derby gift shop sales to benefit Klein Center

Business First of Louisville

The Klein Family Learning Center will open a temporary Kentucky Derby merchandise shop near Churchill Downs later today.

The shop, called Derby Central, is located in Central Station, at Third Street and Central Avenue. It will sell ball caps, T-shirts, glassware, lapel pins and other souvenirs.

Proceeds from sales at the shop will benefit the Klein center, which provides free English-as-a-second-language, citizenship, vocational and other courses for workers on Churchill's backside.

Derby Central will be open from 4 to 7 p.m. on Friday. After the first day, it will be open every day through Sunday, May 4, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

For more information, visit www.derbymuseum.org/kleincenter.

Article can be found online at:

<http://louisville.bizjournals.com/louisville/stories/2008/04/14/daily39.html>